Vacancy Details:

An exciting new opportunity has arisen within our Academy. We are looking for a hard-working individual to undertake the Lead Professional Development Phase role and join our Academy Coaching Department. We pride ourselves on creating an energetic and open-minded working environment, aligned with our Academy values. We are looking for an experienced, enthusiastic, and innovative individual to add to our environment and impact upon our successes.

The coach will be responsible for working to primarily support the U18s, though involved with the U16's, aiming to produce players for our first team. The successful candidate will plan, deliver, and review coaching sessions in line with our playing and coaching philosophies. Manage and support the players alongside a co-coach during fixtures and sessions. Create field leading support for high potential talents and promote individual development.
